

About National Day Celebration

(A unique initiative under Global Country Study Program of MBA)

GTU has implemented a new Global MBA program since August 2011. This program requires immersion studies and preparation of reports and case studies in different subjects. GTU's new MBA Program has three characteristics: Global, Innovative and Skill-oriented.

GCSR (Global Country Study Report) program has been introduced, as a 2-semester study program during the 3rd and the 4th semesters of the MBA since 2011. In GCSR the students and teachers study business interactions with all seven regions of the world having the focus on developing countries.

To strengthen the program, GTU has appointed the Board of Advisors in GCSR; who are the experts and leaders in foreign trade as well as in diplomatic relations.

Stepping forward with the objective of making the GCSR program more efficient and interesting, GTU has started to celebrate the National Day/ Independence Day of selected countries of GCSR program.

Following are some key objectives of the activity:

- ➔ To enhance the overall involvement of the students with the selected GCSR country.
- ➔ To strengthen the network among students, professors and other stakeholders with the selected country
- ➔ To demonstrate and uphold the national pride and fellowship

- ➔ To discuss the environmental factors for exploring the business opportunities with the Selected GCSR Country
- ➔ To provide the platform to the faculties / students to interact with the diplomats / corporate leaders / Entrepreneurs of selected country.

In the National Day Celebrations, the students who are studying specific country come at GTU campus, and celebrate the National Day by reciting National Anthem, presentation on business and trade opportunities and cultural performances of the country of study.

More than 320 International students from 40 countries of Asia and Africa are also studying at various affiliated institutes at GTU. Few of these international students also join the function as special invitees.

We have celebrated National days of 82 countries at GTU Chandkheda campus from August 2013 to June 2016. Limca Book of Records also have taken the note of this achievement and confirmed the record to be published in the book of 2016.
